Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) is President Obama's executive action program granting some undocumented youth temporary protection from deportation while giving them work permits. The 50,000+ New Yorkers and their families with DACA status now face an uncertain future. Your tax-deductible donation will help them pay for DACA renewals and other fees with pro bono legal assistance generously provided by CUNY's Citizenship Now, the Mexican Coalition and the Feerick Center for Social Justice. Please purchase tickets here. APEM and all the sponsors of this benefit are committed to keeping New York the welcoming immigrant gateway city it has been for centuries. Fortunately, DACA is one of many paths to legal status. Thank you for helping immigrants from many nations remain here in New York with their families. *curated by Nolita wine merchants.

Sponsors: APEM (Association of Mexican Professionals and Entrepreneurs Foundation, Fordham's Center for International Policy Studies and Feerick Center for Social Justice, Jaime Lucero Mexican Studies Institute
